Who is SCRA and what is this notice for?

The Scottish Children's Reporter Administration (SCRA) is a national organisation focused on children and young people most at risk. SCRA has been in operation since 1st April 1996. Our main responsibilities are set out in the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1994 and are:

- To facilitate the work of Children's Reporters,
- To deploy and manage staff to carry out that work,
- To provide suitable accommodation for Children's Hearings.

SCRA is part of the Children's Hearings System. It aims to be a safety net for vulnerable children and young people, deliver solutions which meet the needs of the individuals involved, and to help to build stronger families and safer communities.

SCRA is a Data Controller, as defined in data protection law. SCRA's head office is at Ochil House, Springkerse Business Park, Stirling, FK7 7XE and it has various office locations throughout Scotland. Please see our website for further details.

Our Data Protection Officer can be contacted at Inforequest@scra.gov.uk or on 0131 244 7202.

This privacy notice relates to the personal information we process about you, as part of tender exercises conducted at SCRA. It explains what personal information we process about you when you submit a response in relation to a tender exercise, why we process it, and what we do with it. It also explains your rights under data protection law.

SCRA is committed to ensuring all personal information is processed in accordance with data protection law. Please see our Data Protection Policy for further information.

Why do we need to process your personal information?

We need to process your personal information in order to allow SCRA to evaluate bids received, create contracts with the successful supplier and ensure contract requirements are met. The processing is necessary because you have asked us to consider your response in relation to a tender exercise.

Who has access to your personal information?

The following SCRA employees will have access to your personal information:

- Procurement staff
- SCRA employees involved in the tender exercise

Who will we share your personal information with?

If the tender relates to a Works Contract rather than Goods or Services, SCRA may instruct an external consultant to carry out tender analysis of the bids received. Your personal information will be shared with these consultants but we will tell you about this within the tender documentation.

How long will we hold your information?

We retain personal information in line with data protection law. Once personal information is no longer needed, it is securely destroyed. For successful tenders, your information will be retained for 5 years after the contract expiry, in line with our Records Management Policy and Retention Schedule. For unsuccessful tenders, your information will be securely destroyed one year after the tender exercise has been completed.

What are your rights?

One of the key objectives of data protection law is to protect and strengthen your rights as data subjects in respect of the processing of your personal data.

Data protection law provides the following rights for individuals:

1. The right to be informed
2. The right of access
3. The right to rectification
4. The right to erasure
5. The right to restrict processing
6. The right to data portability
7. The right to object
8. The right to not be evaluated on the basis of automated processing

Further information in relation to each right, including how to exercise these rights and where exemptions may apply can be found in the Guide to Data Subjects Rights.

What can you do if you are unhappy with the way we process your information?

If you are unhappy with the way we process your information, please speak to our Data Protection Officer.

The Data Protection Officer can be contacted at inforequest@scra.gov.uk and on 0131 244 7202.

You can also write to them at Ochil House, Springkerse Business Park, Stirling, FK7 7XE.

If you remain unhappy with the way we process your information you can also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office at the contact details below:
